Frank Graf the popular and well that of removing a small cancer

Yours truly arrived from his trip to Tucson yesterday afternoon and was immediately jumped by a number of prominent Republicans on account of an article which appeared in this column some days since stating that there were only eight gentlemen of that guilded opinion in town. We disclaimed all knowledge of the article in question, but they persisted in giving us particulars of their meeting held here Thursday night. From all accounts it appears to have been the largest political meeting held here as yet and our friends are now quite enthusiastic over the outlook. About 20 new members were added to the club list and everything passed off with a rush. The primaries are to be held here today and a large turnout is expected.

BISBEE, Sept. 25, 1896.

ED PROSECTOR:—A meeting was held by the Bisbee Republican Club on Thursday night last for the purpose of nominating candidates for the coming primaries to be held on Saturday, September 26th, 1896. Twenty-four members of the club were nominated, of which number twelve are to be selected as delegates to attend the Republican county convention at Tombstone, Oct. 8th, 1896. Inspectors and clerks for the primaries were also chosen.

There being no further business before the club, the meeting was adjourned with a short but impressive address by Mr. Louis Williams.

From general reports floating about town we are informed that there are about 8 Republicans in Bisbee. It would have been a distressing sight to our
